On May 3, 2019, the Court granted the parties' stipulation requesting a case management conference. ECF No. 56. The Court scheduled the conference to take place on May 23, 2019 and ordered the parties to file a joint case management statement by May 16, 2019. Id. However, on May 16, Plaintiff Pete Panos filed a Unilateral Case Management Statement, explaining that his counsel provided a draft joint statement to counsel for Defendants Orinda Holdings, LLC and Orinda Care Center, LLC, but defense counsel did not return a completed statement for filing. ECF No. 57. Based on their failure to comply with court orders and deadlines, the Court ORDERS Defendants to show cause why default should not be entered against them. The Court ORDERS Defendants to appear for an order to show cause hearing on May 30, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. in Courtroom A. The May 23, 2019 case management conference is CONTINUED to May 30, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. Defendants are ORDERED to file their portion of the case management statement by May 23, 2019. No chambers copy is required.
